§ 165-9. Billposters and handbill distributors.

- A. It shall be unlawful for any person to engage in the business of a billposter for hire or as a handbill distributor for hire, or for any person to distribute commercial or noncommercial handbills, without first complying with the terms of this chapter and all other relevant laws and regulations, provided that nothing contained herein shall apply to any person advertising the business or activity upon his or her own premises if such business or activity is regularly established at a definite location in the city and, also, if a license has been obtained therefor if such license is required under the terms of any applicable law or ordinance.
- B. Any person desiring to engage, as principal, either in the business of a billposter for hire or in the business of distributing commercial or noncommercial handbills for hire, shall make application to and receive from the Roseville Police Department a license in the manner and for the period prescribed by the terms of this chapter and by all relevant provisions of this Code. Such applicant shall make written application to the Roseville Police Department upon a form or forms provided for such purpose by such Department. Such form shall contain, among other things that may be required, the name, the business address and a brief description of the nature of the business to be conducted by the applicant and the probable number of agents and employees so to be engaged, together with a request for a license for the period for which the applicant seeks to engage in such business.
- C. Without excluding other just grounds for revocation, the City Council, or official so empowered by law, may revoke any license obtained under an application containing a false or fraudulent statement knowingly made by the applicant with intent to obtain a license by means of false or fraudulent representations or for violation of this chapter or for any other grounds specified by law. Such application shall be accompanied by the fee hereinafter provided for in this chapter. No license issued under this chapter shall be transferable, and if such license shall be surrendered by the licensee therein named or shall be revoked for cause, neither the licensee named in such license nor any other person shall be entitled to any refund of any part of such fee.
- D. License fees under the terms of this chapter, and for such purpose, shall be as provided in Chapter 133, Fees, provided that persons acting for licensees, as agents or employees, in the posting or distributing of any such signs or handbills shall not be required to obtain a license or pay a fee, but each such person shall comply with each and all of the other provisions hereof and shall be subject thereto.^[1]
