

in Roseville

It's time to get outside, explore our community spaces, and see some great art at the same time!

The Detroit Institute of Arts has installed recreations of classic paintings in 9 locations around the City.

Visit all of them, return the bottom portion of this page, and you will be entered to win a prize!

Here's how it works:

- Scan the QR code above to get the map of all 9 locations.
- Visit each location and use the description there to fill in the blanks below. The circled letters will be used to solve the Secret Phrase at the end.
- Once you've visited all 9 sites and decoded the Secret Phrase, detach the answer sheet and return to The City of Roseville.

All submissions must be received by 4 PM on November 17, 2022

Prize drawing will be held on November 18, 2022

You need not be present to win.

(detach this portion and return to the City of Roseville)

- Georges Seurat is known for creating images using only of color.
- In this painting, Winslow Homer turned his eye toward a image of rural life.
- In this painting, Olivia confides her heartsickness for a young man to an .
- Monets painted his wife strolling along the path in their family .
- Kirchner found and in the bright moon setting on the mountains in this scene.
- Bellows was among the first Americans to paint happenings, like a summer day at the park.
- Cassatt was famous for -like paintings that capture relationships between mother and child.
- A fur trapper and his son head home with their catch along the River.
- The floating heart is about to be pierced by .

Secret Phrase:

Name: _____ Phone #: _____

Email: _____

- Age:
- Youth under 12
 - Teen 13 - 18
 - Young Adult 19 - 29
 - Adult 30 - 54
 - Senior 55+

Submit to: Jim Gammicchia
Community & Economic Development
City of Roseville
29777 Gratiot Avenue
Roseville, MI 48066
via mail or drop box

Game designed by Amanda Murphy and Jason Novetsky of the Roseville Public Library.