THANK YOU AAS VOLUNTEERS!

Despite the high flows, our amazing volunteers geared up on Saturday May 4 to monitor their sites as part of our Spring Adopt-A-Stream program!

Want to become an Adopt-A-Stream volunteer? Be on the lookout for our Fall training dates later this summer and for the final 2019 data summary after the Fall monitoring (October 5).

FISH STOCKING IN AUBURN HILLS

On April 25th roughly 5000 brown trout were stocked in Riverside Park in Auburn Hills. Click here to watch this awesome video about the fish stocking!

Want to go fishing? The City of Auburn Hills will be holding their annual fishing derby as part of River Day on June 8th at Riverside Park!

CLINTON RIVER WATERSHED COUNCIL ROAD STREAM CROSSING TRAINING

Are you interested in gathering important environmental data?

Are you concerned about fish and other valuable natural resources?

Do you want to get involved in protecting local water resources?

Come out and learn about how road stream crossings can affect our local rivers, streams and the fish and organisms that live within them.

YOU can become a volunteer scientist for the CRWC!

This is a FREE training where you can collect valuable data from across the watershed!

When: Thursday, May 16 2019
6:00pm-8:00pm
