

CITY OF ROSEVILLE BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

Board of Review

The purpose of this Board is to listen to citizen's petitions about the assessment of their property and make decisions regarding that assessment.

Electrical Appeals Board

The purpose of the Electrical Appeals Board is to formally appeal an electrical installation condemnation, as determined by the City Electrical Inspection. The Roseville Department of Buildings and Inspection shall keep complete records of all permits issued and inspections made and other official work performed under the provisions of this chapter.

When the Electrical Inspector condemns all or part of any electrical installation, the owner or his or her agent may, within five days after receiving written notice from the Electrical Inspector, file a petition, in writing, for review of said action of the Electrical Inspector with the Electrical Appeals Board. Upon receipt of the petition, the Board shall at once proceed to determine whether said electrical installation complies with this chapter, and within three days shall make a decision in accordance with its findings.

Licensing Appeals Board

Any applicant aggrieved by the denial of an application or imposition of conditions for a license shall appeal by filing with the License Appeal Board, within 10 days after denial of such application, a written statement claiming an appeal and setting forth the grounds for appeal.

Construction Board of Appeals

Any person affected by a decision of the Code Official or a notice or order issued under this code shall have the right to appeal to the Board of Appeals, provided that a written application for appeal is filed within 20 days after the day the decision, notice or order was served. An application for appeal shall be based on a claim that the true intent of this code or the rules legally adopted thereunder have been incorrectly interpreted, the provisions of this code do not fully apply or the requirements of this code are adequately satisfied by other means.

Planning Commission

The Michigan Planning Enabling Act, Act 33 of 2008, and the Michigan Zoning Enabling Act, Act 110 of 2006, provides the legislative framework by which the appointed Planning Commission Members manage the planning and zoning functions of city government. The Roseville Planning Commission, , as established in Chapter 45 of the Roseville Code of Ordinances, is designated and shall perform the zoning duties of said commission as provided in the statute in connection with any amendment.

Retirement Board

The City of Roseville Employees Retirement System, hereinafter referred to as the retirement system, was established to provide pension and retirement benefits to the personnel of the City of Roseville, their families and beneficiaries. The Retirement System was created in accordance with the City of Roseville Charter. The provisions of the City Charter, together with the applicable collective bargaining agreements and applicable federal and state law, control and govern the rights and benefits under the Retirement System. As pension benefits are a mandatory subject of collective bargaining under the Michigan Public Employment Relations Act, the retirement system provisions have been, and may continue to be, modified by collective bargaining agreements. Please note: collective bargaining agreements are controlling in the event of a conflict with the City Charter.
